

CEDRICK ARCHIN

CHIEF OF CREATION OFFICE

About Me

A relentless innovator with a passion for transformative impact, I have dedicated my career to solving social challenges through creative entrepreneurship. My journey began at 18, where I carved my path in a groundbreaking creative internship at Hainet, crafting influential marketing campaigns that set the stage for my future endeavors. Since then, I've taken on leadership roles at renowned organizations like Goodchef, Purposeful Party, and Kominote Timoun Ayiti, where my creative vision has consistently driven powerful, lasting change.

With over eight years of unwavering commitment to social service, I'm now on a mission to establish an innovation agency that tackles pressing social issues and creates new markets. My goal is to harness my entrepreneurial spirit and deep-rooted passion for social impact to uplift the Haitian community. I am actively seeking opportunities to collaborate with like-minded organizations, where I can merge my extensive experience with my creativity to build sustainable, life-changing initiatives that honor and elevate the Haitian spirit.
